

THE CALIFORNIA WRITERS COALITION presents:

JEANNIE CUNNINGHAM - POET & CHANTEUSE A Cabaret in Lyrical Writing

Come be enthralled by the mellifluous riffs of Jeannie Cunningham, celebrity songwriter. Turn up the volume on the secrets that bring lyrical writing from your heart and head to your hands and paper.

Discover the symbiosis of music & poetry as Jae Cie reveals the inner place that sparks imagination, and then performs the final result.

Jae Cie's music is already heard worldwide each and every day as part of several high-profile product campaigns with Mitsubishi, Epson, Toshiba, and Chevron. But Jae Cie's first calling is to her own original music as a songwriter and performer.

Jeannie Cunningham is enviable; she's a poet who actually gets paid for her verse. Okay, she also sets her poetry to music – but that just makes it twice as nice. So, come to the writer's cabaret my friend. ♦♦
